INDUSTRY NOTICE

January 30, 2012

The extended haul boat period will end at 11:59 p.m. January 31, 2012.

Due to difficult ocean conditions, WDFW modified the haul boat provisions so that Washington coastal commercial crab fishers could use a haul boat to assist in setting their gear for an extended period, during the opening of the area north of Klipsan Beach.

Five additional days have been allowed and industry members advise us that no additional extension is necessary.
